

Phan Timeline - 2009

I strongly believe in the death of the author.
The internet owns it now.

- K
(The Phan Directory)

This is not a 'Dan and Phil' timeline, this is a 'Phan Timeline' and as such, it will not have every single thing Dan and Phil have done with their lives, only the things that imply there may be something more going on.

Dan's Dailybooth [\[link\]](#)

Dan hung out with his irl school friends for the last time before they all went off to different universities.

[It is believed this was the last time he and his girlfriend were together - whether they were still together up until this point is unknown, but they weren't together after it. It is also unknown if they broke up before she went away for Uni, or if they were going to try and do long distance - though that is unlikely since Dan never once mentions going to visit her, despite going to visit lots of other people in his gap year (and not just Phil)]

Phil's Dailybooth [\[link\]](#)

Phil posted this picture and said "Grrrrr" because it was 3:30am and he couldn't sleep.

Dan commented "i was still awake at 3. i should have had my laptop on still. quite a manly photo i think =p"

Sep 28, 2009

Dan's Dailybooth [\[link\]](#)

Dan said "been speaking to all my friends now at uni, making me feel lonesom. sniff would anyone like to watch a sunset with me? D:"

[It's cute because when he meets Phil in a months time, they watch the sunset together]

[Not knowing what he wants could relate back to whether he wants to continue being in a relationship with his Ex who he's realised he's not 'in love' with anymore, or whether he wants to send it and try something with Phil. It could also be relating to his uni/youtube options again - lost about what he wants to do with his future and he doesn't know what he wants]

[Again, i don't know what he was going on about.. but since he just booked tickets to go and spend two nights at Phil's house (an older guy he met on the internet) I'm going to say perhaps he was talking to his parents about going and visiting him and his 'kill me' sort of stuff was about him feeling really uncomfortable talking to his parents about it]

Dan's Dailybooth [\[link\]](#)

Dan posted a photo of his wrists twisted 360 degrees and said "i want you to tell me, or show me! any weird double jointed things you can do, or your party trick!"

[I believe, going on his last tweet and this line, perhaps his parents weren't so thrilled with the idea of him going to visit Phil]

I know you'll all ask for my opinion on this, so here it is. I'm not entirely sure what this long ramble was about, but my guess would be he is torn between what he thinks realistically will be best for his future (studying law/going to uni in general) compared to the possibility that he could start doing something like YouTube (keep in mind he hadn't made his first video yet). As for the questions of 'the difference between 'being in love' and 'loving someone' how can you tell what you feel' I think perhaps he is still talking about his Ex (we don't know the exact date that they broke up) and so here he is realising that he's not 'in love' with her anymore and wondering whether just 'loving someone' is worth it or whether he will regret it, especially if it were to mean missing up a possible opportunity with Phil, which is why he is saying he is torn, but he's already committed to going to meet Phil and stay at his house for two nights while Phil's parents are away (he booked the train tickets two days ago) and he's worried he will end up with the biggest regret from it (if he's still with his Ex, then that regret would be cheating on her) and he's saying he's too weak to do it himself, so he will eat his just desserts when she finds out. Which makes me think of [Dan's VYou where he was asked if he would forgive a girl if she cheated on him and he said "it would very much depend on the specific situation" which indicates he believes there are forgivable incidences of cheating. But just so we're clear, I'm not saying he cheated on her, he implied in his DML video that they broke up when she went away for uni and he stayed in their hometown on his gap year (which would have been around this time anyway - she went off to uni at the end of September) and he never once mentions going to visit her at uni during his gap year (despite visiting lots of other people, and not just Phil) which implies they broke up before she left or they decided long distance wasn't going to work for them pretty quickly. So just because Dan might be debating 'being in love' and 'loving someone' now, doesn't mean he didn't make his mind up and sort stuff out with her before he went to visit Phil on the 19th. Or he could be talking about regretting breaking up with her and whether he should have just stayed with her even if it was 'just love' not 'in love'.]

@tinoforever also tagged Dan to answer a bunch of questions, i'll just highlight:

"5. Relationship status: ?"

[Fairly certain he had already broken up with his girlfriend by this stage, so why is it a '?' for relationship? Also, is he saying that he originally bought his signature furry hat just so that he could wear it to Manchester when he visits Phil? Cause that's so cute that he still has it]

[I wonder if Charlie is implying that Phil got a boyfriend and stopped calling him like he used to..]

[Interesting he's saying this right after saying he had a dream with Dan in it..]

[Planning on going to Muse together ^__^ Fun fact, Phil said that he bought the Muse poster currently in their lounge room at this Muse concert.. Yet when they lived in Manchester together, the poster was Dan's room and Dan used to always say that it was his.. Makes me think maybe Phil bought it for him]

[The “o.O” in Phil’s tweet makes me want to know what he was getting distracted by ;)]

[I know you will all ask me what i think of these, so here it is; Dan’s 2:57 tweet makes me think that he’s going to allow himself to do something he normally wouldn’t do if he was thinking straight, but since he’s tired or horny he’s going to do it.. The fact that they’re both still awake at “almost 3am” and the fact that Phil tweeted about getting distracted earlier and also continues to stay up for another hour and forty minutes after realising it’s almost 3am makes me think they are probably talking to each other on Skype, or msn at least. So then, Dan’s tweet from 2:57 make me wonder if the ‘things’ he’s going to do is something Phil has suggested on Skype and normally Dan would say no, but because he’s tired or horny, he’s going to do it. so then the tweet from 2:49 is perhaps him being sarcastic.. saying that he can be “easily persuaded” (because he’s “tired or horny”) by the internet (i.e. Phil on Skype) and whatever he is being persuaded to do is making him into a ‘whore’. Hmm.. i wonder what he could be doing on Skype with Phil that would make him feel that way ;) As for the life being split in two it’s kind of like, his life with his irl friends at home in Reading and then his life with Phil and his internet friends/followers and being judged by his irl friends for what he's doing perhaps. Keep in mind that the split my life in two tweet was an hour after his other one so it's not necessarily immediately connected, but perhaps if they did do something on Skype, and then Dan mentioned it to one of his irl friends thinking they'd be cool with it, they turned around and judged him for it]
